

2024 Red Chris Mine

USW LOCAL 1-1937 UPDATE

BULLETIN – MARCH 26, 2024

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Another Union is trying to organize the Kitchen and Housekeeping Staff at Red Chris. Having another Union represent those workers is not in your best interests as the other union "Unite 40" could cause labour disruptions or a strike that would impact you and your fellow USW co-workers. Unfortunately, USW Local 1-1937 has already had this negative experience with this other Union at a different work location.

It is far more advantageous and beneficial for you if the Kitchen and Housekeeping staff at Red Chris join your union under its own Collective Agreement. It is far better for one Union to represent both the Red Chris employees and the sites Kitchen and Housekeeping unit to minimize labour disputes and potential work disruptions.

The United Steelworkers represents more workers in mines than any other Union in Canada including other Kitchen and Housekeeping workers in other mines in British Columbia.

We believe our Union can negotiate significant improvements for the TNDC / Sodexo workers if they were to join the USW Union.

USW Local 1-1937 asks you to reach out to the Red Chris Kitchen and Housekeeping staff to urge them to join the United Steelworkers Local 1-1937 to negotiate a fair Collective Agreement.
